

Scottish Journal of Geology
Volume 36, Part 2
Pages 97–192, 2000

CONTENTS

THE MILLENNIUM ISSUE

BLUCK B. J.
‘Where ignorance is bliss ‘tis folly to be wise (Thomas Gray 1716–1761) – controversy in the basement blocks of Scotland.	97
CRAIG, G. Y.
Biscuits, books and beer	102
MCKIRDY, A.
Environmental geology: reaching out to a wider audience	105
MACDOUGALL, J. E.
The road to the oils	110
BRADDY, S. J.
Euryterids from the Early Devonian of the Midland Valley of Scotland	115
FLINN, D.
The architecture of the Shetland Ophiolite	123
HANCOCK, J. M.
The Gribun Formation: clues to the latest Cretaceous history of western Scotland	137
POWER, M. R. and PIRRIE, D.
Platinum-group mineralization within ultramafic rocks at Corrycharmaig, Perthshire: implications for the origin of the complex.	143
ANDERSON, L. I., DUNLOP, J. A. and TREWIN, N. H.
A Middle Devonian chasmataspid arthropod from Achanarras Quarry, Caithness, Scotland	151
SHERWIN, L. and RICKARDS, B.
Rogercooperia , a new genus of Ordovician glossograptid graptolite from southern Scotland and New South Wales, Australia	159
CHAPMAN, R. J., LEAKE, R. C. and FLOYD, J. D.
Regional variation in gold mineralization in the vicinity of the Glengaber Burn, Scottish Borders	165
HOLLAND, C. H.
Silurian cephalopods from the Pentland Hills	177
BOOK REVIEW	187
INDEX
AUTHOR	191
SUBJECT	191

